

Bringing Notre Dame to the world and the world to Notre Dame.

November 08, 2022

The application deadline to study abroad during the 2023-24 academic year has been extended to November 10, 2022. If you missed the Study Abroad Dead Week, you can view recorded information sessions.

Click here to visit our website for more information!

Join NDI Study Abroad in celebrating first-generation college students! Tuesday, November 8th is the National Celebration of First-Gen students, a term that refers to any student who is the first in their family to pursue a four-year degree. Take a moment to celebrate any first-generation students you know. If you are a first-gen student studying abroad or thinking about going abroad, be sure to check out our First Generation Student Identity Abroad page.

International Education Week

International Education Week \(IEW\), November 14 -18, 2022, is an opportunity to celebrate the benefits of international education and exchange worldwide. This joint initiative of the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Department of Education is an effort to promote programs that prepare Americans for a global environment and attract future leaders from abroad to study, learn, and exchange experiences. Join Notre Dame International as we celebrate International Education Week (IEW). Be sure to follow NDI's Instagram as Study Abroad Storytellers will be taking over that week.

Leveraging Your Study Abroad Experience

How can you articulate intercultural competencies, skills, and experiences you gained through studying abroad to stand out in a field of applicants? Are you a senior considering an international career, post-grad service, research, or fellowship opportunities? Join Notre Dame International and various campus centers on Tuesday, November 15 at 6:30 PM in 512 Duncan in the Meruelo Family Center for Career Development as we discuss how you can leverage your study abroad experience into your next steps beyond Notre Dame.

Registration is required. Jimmy John's will be provided!

Join Notre Dame International for the November coffee hour event, cohosted by International Students and Scholars Affairs and the Center for the Study of Language and Culture. This month's topic is "You don't look Brazilian: Breaking down cultural stereotypes." We will have coffee and hot chocolate, along with some snacks to share. Wednesday, November 16th from 4:00 pm - 5:00 pm in Remick Family Hall. Register here.

The Summer Language Abroad \(SLA\) Grant provides students with funding for intensive summer language study (abroad up to $5,500). This competitive grant is open to undergraduate students with a declared major, supplementary major, or minor in the College of Arts and Letters. Click here for more information.

Study Abroad STORYTELLERS

The Study Abroad Storytellers program is an opportunity for current study abroad students to share their stories with prospective study abroad students and the Notre Dame community. If you are considering studying abroad and have questions about living abroad, connect with the Fall 2022 storytellers here.

Learn more about Notre Dame International's work around the world.

Gateways and Centers

