New Program Highlight!

Sonipat, located just outside New Delhi, presents a captivating blend of rich history and vibrant modernity, making it an exceptional destination for both tourism and studying abroad. With millennia-old historical sites like the Red Fort, Qutub Minar, and Humayun's Tomb, this region offers a captivating journey through India's past. The area's bustling markets, such as Chandni Chowk, showcase its colorful culture and diverse culinary scene. Beyond its historical allure, this metropolitan area is home to prestigious educational institutions, most notably Ashoka University, attracting students from across the globe. The city's cosmopolitan atmosphere, characterized by a dynamic mix of languages, cuisines, cultures, and ideas, fosters an enriching academic and personal growth environment. As a gateway to exploring India's diverse landscapes, history, and traditions, Sonipat and Delhi offer students an unforgettable experience.
